

MESSAGE FROM THE DEAN

DR. CHANINTORN JITTAWIRIYA NUKOON
DEAN
Graduate School of eLearning (GSeL)
Assumption University
Bangkok, Thailand

Let me first congratulate all the authors and contributors to the new edition of eJIR. I am sure that every new opportunity in coming months will lead to a better life in 2019. May the next edition of eJIR to be published in December 2018 bring more happiness, excitement and sweet surprises to your doorstep!

On behalf of GSeL I thank all the contributors to the 3rd Volume of Assumption University-eJournal of Interdisciplinary Research (AU-eJIR). eJIR aims to promote original research in few areas-Technology, Multidisciplinary Science & Technology, Economics, Education and Management. As an open access journal its core objective is to cultivate fruitful dialogues among academics, researchers and graduate students.

On this auspicious occasion of the publication of 3rd edition (Vol-3: Issue-2) of AU-eJIR I must congratulate the contributors from various countries. It is quite encouraging to see that this time we have received large number of papers from faculty, researchers and graduate students from various countries ranging from India, Nigeria, Vietnam, and Saudi Arabia to Mexico. This year we also have a few contributions from our own faculty members working at Assumption University.

I wish all the success and glory to eJIR and thank the staff and the Managing Director for putting together the first edition of year 2018. I am sure that for the next edition of eJIR we will have many more interesting papers covering variety of themes.

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR CHANINTORN JITTAWIRIYA NUKOON, D.ENG.
